WELCOME NOTE

Dear Film Enthusiasts,

This week is a momentous time for Chinese Canadians and Toronto as a whole. We finally have a film festival that we can call our very own. With over 821,835 Chinese in the Greater Toronto Area, there is no shortage of filmmakers and film lovers to fuel a creative, energetic and diverse celebration of film.

The Chinese have a long rooted history in Canada. From the building of the national railroad, to the Head Tax and the Chinese Exclusion Act, to the mass migration from Hong Kong during the 1990's that fueled the Canadian economy. We have a relationship with this country that has been the genesis of countless stories and the starting point for many Chinese Canadian filmmakers who need a home for their films to be shown.

As we just completed the commemoration of the 1923 Chinese Exclusion Act, which reinforced the resilience and fortitude of the Chinese in Canada, we have seen the light and the increasing acceptance of Chinese in mainstream film both in front of and behind the camera. And Chinese Canadians have certainly made their mark on the world stage! Toronto is the home of many great film festivals such as The Toronto International Film Festival, Hot Docs and the Reel Asian Film Festival, to name a few. Now it is time to put one more destination on the map for the film industry - The Toronto Chinese Canadian Film Festival.

As we celebrate this inauguration, let us remember how we got here and how much more work we need to do. Our hope is to not only inspire Chinese Canadians but to also foster cross-cultural education and collaboration both here and abroad.

We thank you for attending and hope you enjoy the films that we have curated for you.

Sincerely,
The Toronto Chinese Canadian Film Festival

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT FOR TORONTO

We acknowledge that the land on which we gather is the traditional territory of many nations, including the Mississaugas of the Credit, the Anishnabeg, the Chippewa, the Haudenosaunee, and the Wendat peoples. Today, Toronto is home to many diverse First Nations, Inuit, and Métis peoples.

We recognize the enduring presence of Indigenous peoples on this land and their deep connection to it. This land is covered by Treaty 13, signed with the Mississaugas of the Credit, and the Williams Treaties.

We also acknowledge the early bonds between Indigenous peoples and Chinese immigrants, whose shared resilience shaped the foundations of this land. Indigenous communities offered guidance and taught early Chinese settlers how to live from the land—acts of generosity that fostered mutual respect and understanding between two peoples seeking belonging in Canada.

We are grateful to live and work on this territory, and we commit ourselves to learning from and building respectful relationships with Indigenous communities..

OUR MANDATE

Our stories begin at home, where Chinese immigrants to Canada have been part of the national fabric that have made this country great. As we look around us today, we see the impact and the countless stories to be told of Chinese here and abroad that have made Canada part of their narrative.

The Toronto Chinese Canadian Film Festival was created to celebrate the 360 degrees of Chinese cinema - the past, the present and the future. As the Greater Toronto Area is home to over 821,835 Chinese Canadians, we wanted to:

- Bring good Chinese Films for ALL to enjoy.
- To Promote Long & Rich Chinese Heritage.
- To nurture the future generations of young filmmakers.

Exclusion: Beyond the Silence is a feature documentary that reveals the human impact of a discriminatory immigration policy that caused lasting intergenerational trauma to Chinese Canadians, their culture and family life. It is the story of two granddaughters examining the legacy of their respective grandmothers - women of indomitable spirit who fought for family reunification, establishing permanent roots for the Chinese Canadian Community and paving the way for Canada's policy of multiculturalism. The film is directed by Keira Loughran, a fourth-generation Chinese Canadian theatre actor and director. Her grandmother was Jean Lumb, the first Chinese Canadian woman to be honoured with the Order of Canada. On her quest, she is joined by Helen Lee whose grandmother, Foon Hay Lum, who, at 111, was the oldest Canadian to die of COVID-19 in the early days of the pandemic.

Together, Helen and Keira travel across Canada, to learn how the Exclusion Act impacted generations of Chinese Canadian families. They discover more about the pivotal role their grandmothers played. The journey ultimately takes them to Guangdong Province in rural southern China, where they connect with relatives they've never met before.

It's an extraordinary untold story and a timely reminder of the struggle and sacrifice of the Chinese Canadian community and their contribution to Canadian society.

Never again
Must we forget
That we are one

We who commit crimes
We who condemn crimes
All who suffer are one

We harm ourselves
